Day 2

Day 02 Lima

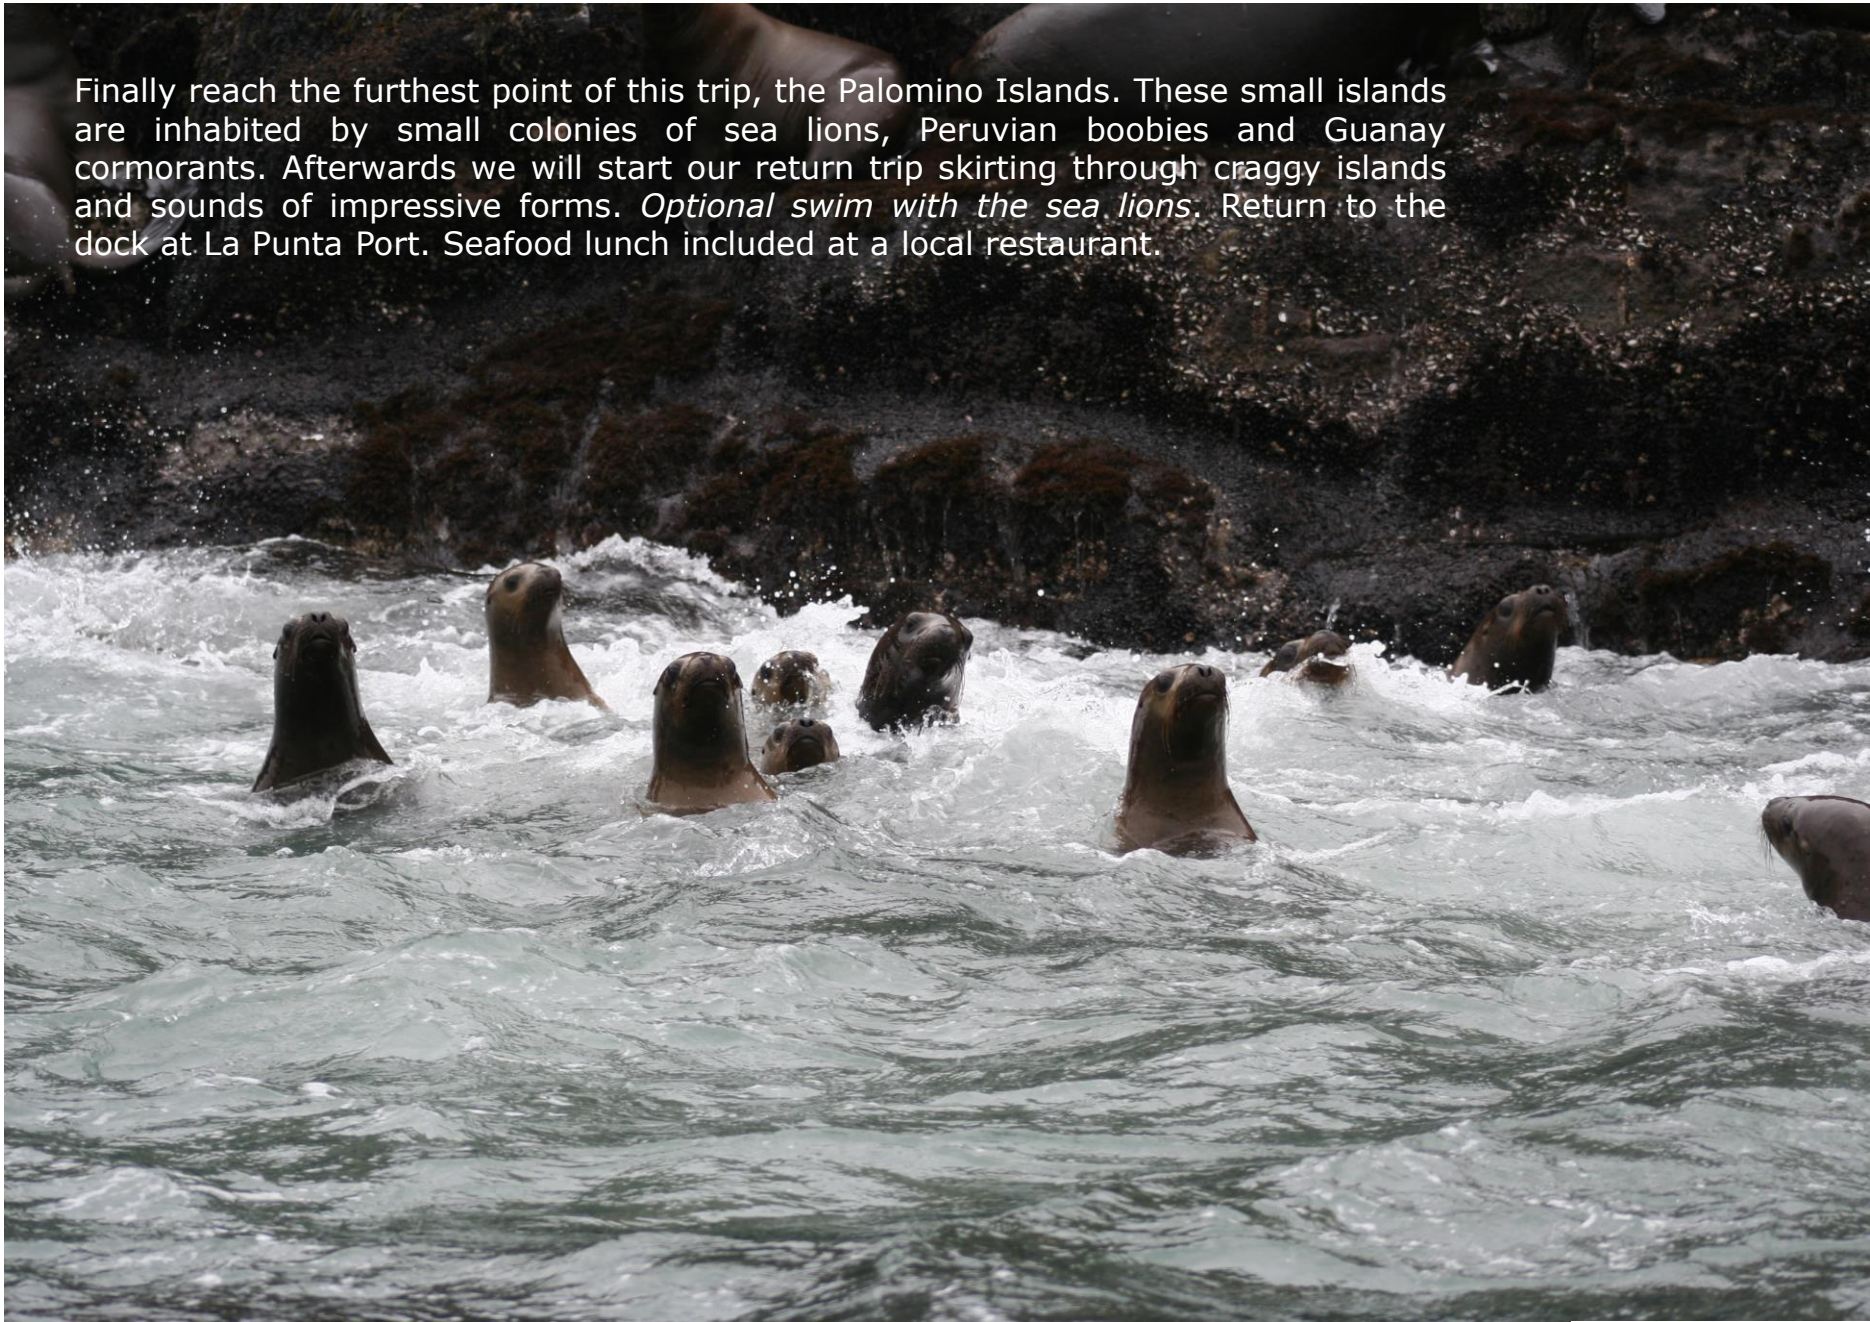

(B/L/-)

- FD Palomino Island, Real Felipe Fortress & walk through La Punta Port (private English speaking guide)
- Lunch included at a local seaside restaurant (set menu)
- Overnight in Lima

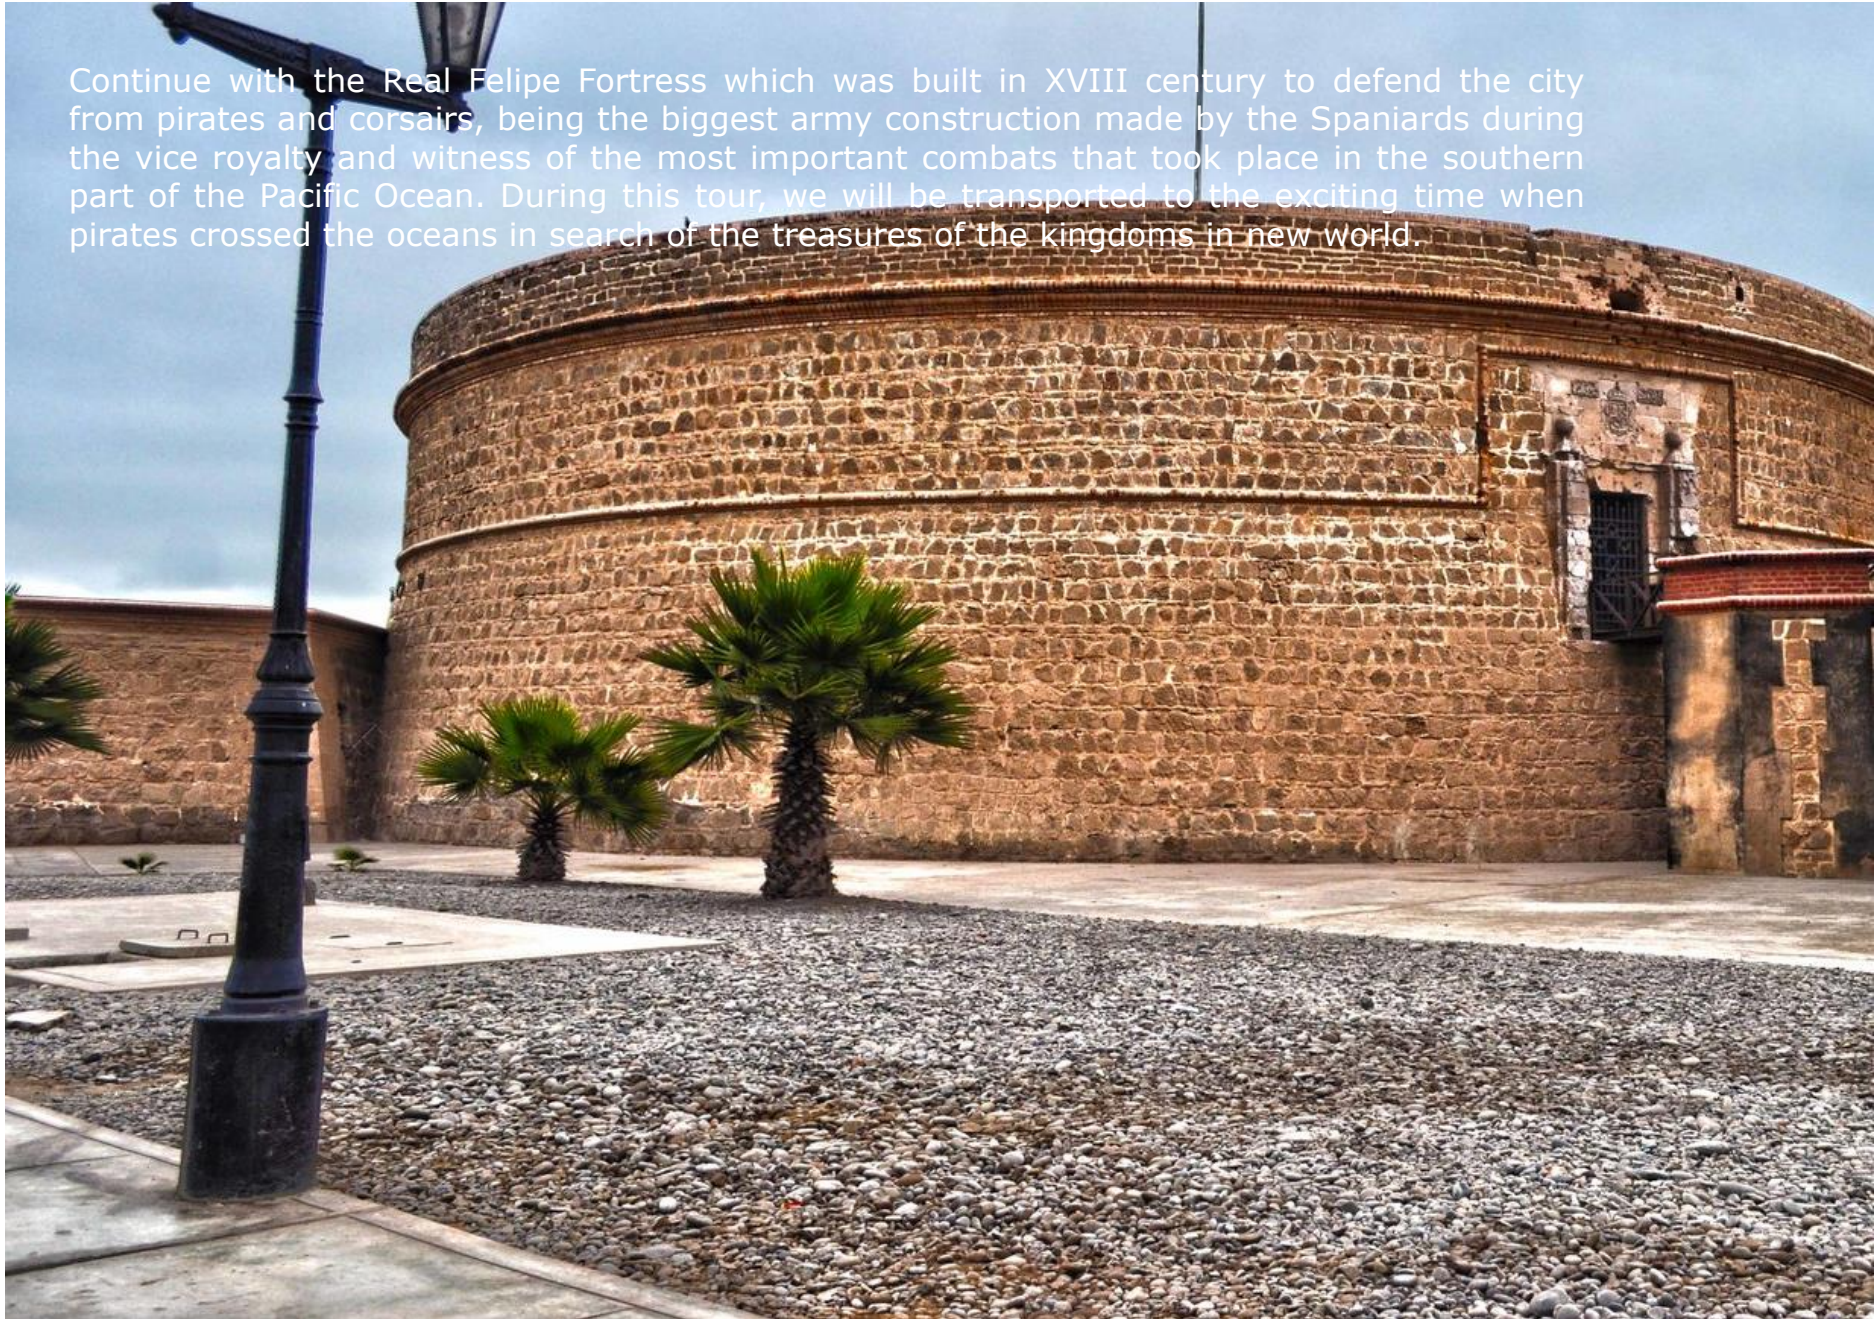

Morning transfer to La Punta District at Callao, Peru's foremost port founded in 1537 originally as a port of embarkation for merchandise to be shipped to Spain. It is located 14 kms from downtown Lima, still featuring venerable wooden colonial mansions lined with long and elaborately carved balconies.

Finally reach the furthest point of this trip, the Palomino Islands. These small islands are inhabited by small colonies of sea lions, Peruvian boobies and Guanay cormorants. Afterwards we will start our return trip skirting through craggy islands and sounds of impressive forms. Optional swim with the sea lions. Return to the dock at La Punta Port. Seafood lunch included at a local restaurant.

Continue with the Real Felipe Fortress which was built in XVIII century to defend the city from pirates and corsairs, being the biggest army construction made by the Spaniards during the vice royalty and witness of the most important combats that took place in the southern part of the Pacific Ocean. During this tour, we will be transported to the exciting time when pirates crossed the oceans in search of the treasures of the kingdoms in new world.

Real Felipe Fortress – Callao District

Then leave for the Islands off the Callao Seaport. At the beginning appreciate the anchorage of the yachts, war ships and freighters in the Bay. During the trip you will pass through the "El Cam otal" Shallows, where you will be told stories about old ship wrecks and grounded ships. We will pass by the Isla San Lorenzo Island, rich in stories dating back to pre- Columbian times. We will also be able to observe fishermen in their boats hauling nets, several Guano bird and Humboldt penguin rookeries.

Los Cabos Restaurant – Callao District

- Transfer Cusco Airport / Hotel in the Sacred Valley including a visit to Awanacancha Textile Center & Pisac Markets en route (private English speaking guide)
- Rest of the day at leisure to enjoy hotel facilities
- Overnight in the Sacred Valley

After breakfast at the hotel you will be assisted to board your flight to Cusco. Upon arrival to Cusco's airport our representative will assist you with your luggage and drive you to the hotel at The Sacred Valley, located at 2300 m, which is less high than the City of Cusco, and will help to avoid altitude sickness.

On the route to the valley you will have the chance to stop at Awanacancha, where you will observe the traditional Andean weaving techniques and see the four types of camel-related Andean animals – llamas, guanacos, alpacas and vicunas. Alpacas have thick wool and is the most commonly used, while the vicunas are small and delicate with fur considered the finest. Awanacancha is a weaving center with the goal to keep alive the traditional textile arts. Then, visit the Pisac market where you will have opportunity to interact with local people, and even negotiate with sellers. Transfer to the hotel. Rest of the day at leisure to enjoy the hotel 's facilities. Overnight in the Sacred Valley.

Day 4

(B/-/-)

- Optional HD excursions (private English speaking guide):
 - HD Mountain Biking
 - HD Quad Biking
 - HD Horseback riding
 - HD Trekking through Yucay Terraces
- Overnight in the Sacred Valley

Depart: 9:00 am or 2:00 pm

Return: 12:00 pm ó 5:00 pm

Duration: 3 hours (estimated time, from start to finish, including rests and refreshments).

This is an easy ride that takes us on paths through communities near the hotel, the town of Urubamba, the farms and fields of Chihubamba and from there, towards Yucay, Huayllabamba and Urquillos. We ride on mostly rural routes where there is no traffic. In certain points, when there is no alternative, we have to use paved roads. This journey of approximately 20 kilometers, crosses mostly flat terrain, and is appropriate for beginners. It's an excursion into the everyday life of the valley, a chance to encounter villagers as they go about their usual tasks: working in fields, planting, tilling. The stunning views along the way are an added bonus. The town of Yucay has some fine examples of ancient Incan terraces, as well as ruins of fine masonry of the period. Urquillos and Huayllabamba are typical agricultural town that keel alive many cultural traditions.

QUAD BIKING

From Pumahuanca gorge, we cross the farming communities of Rumichaca, Palcaraqui and Pumahuanca. Accompanied by scenic vistas, passing through native flora, we continue along to Chicón gorge from which we can see mountains and glaciers. The route takes us on to the town of Urubamba, archaeological ruins of the palace of Huayna Capac, the traditional community of Chichubamba and its chicherías where they brew maize beer.

RESTRICTIONS: No tours when weather conditions are deemed risky.

RIDING

Depart: 9:00 am or 2:00 pm

Duration: 3 hrs. (estimated time)

After a short orientation, we set off on rural paths, across small villages and communities neighboring the hotel such as Palcaraqui, Rumichaca, San Jose de Media Luna, Pumahanca and Chichubamba. As we travel, we are transported into a rural lifestyle, meeting and greeting villagers in their everyday wear, as they cook, herd cattle and till their fields and like this, we respectfully interact with them, in their cultural space and get a glimpse of their daily rhythms. Our tour follows mostly rural routes and paths – no asphalt, very few to no cars.

FD Hike: Chinchero - Urquillos

Depart: 9:00 am or 2:00 pm

Duration: 3 hrs. (estimated time)

A visit to the picturesque village of Chinchero followed by a hike down a spectacular stone-paved Inca trail to a wooded gully and onto the Sacred Valley. After going down the trek, we will arrive at Urquillos town, then we will go to crossway landscape route towards Huayllabamba town from we will take our private transportation and back to our hotel. We will have box lunch for the route.

Machu Picchu Town Train Station

The exact precision of massive stone building, the provision of water channels that reveal a deep understanding of hydraulics, the steps carved into the rock of the mountain and Intihuatana (“the highest point of the Sun”), which served as a solar calendar that regulate planting and harvesting, are tangible and concrete expression of deep knowledge and technological advancement of the empire. All these buildings, along with the Temple of the Sun, The Royal Tomb, The Priest’s House, the Inca Baths and the Temple of Three Windows, allow you to go back in time and with the help of your guide, revive the existence of those builders truly admirable. Lunch at the Restaurant Sanctuary Lodge. In the afternoon you will take the train Vistadome back to Ollantaytambo and then transfer by private car to Cusco. Overnight in Cusco.

Kids' Jungle Excursion

Rainforest Tattoo: Getting tattooed in the Rainforest? No worries, we'll prepare a paste from a fruit called "huito", and achiote or other natural dyes to draw tattoos on ourselves. We can draw different shapes of animals or other patterns associated with the forest. They only last a few days

Day 8

Day 08 – Puerto Maldonado

- Jungle excursions (shared English speaking guide)
- Overnight in the lodge

A low-angle photograph of a person climbing a massive tree trunk in a lush rainforest. The climber is wearing a helmet, a harness, and gloves, and is secured to a rope. The tree's trunk is thick and textured, with many smaller branches and dense green foliage surrounding it. Sunlight filters through the canopy, creating a dappled light effect.

Canopy climbing: The canopy of the rainforest is where most of the action takes place, and this activity brings you up into this exciting, little known realm. Two experienced, certified guides will take you to a massive Brazil Nut Tree and make sure that you are equipped with a helmet, harness, and gloves before showing you how to safely ascend high up into the tree with the standard, proven Jumar technique. The ascent will bring you to a canopy platform 30 meters (100 feet) above the ground. The view of the river and surrounding rainforest is incredible and you will have a good chance of seeing macaws and parrots flying over the top of the rainforest, and may also glimpse monkeys or other wildlife.

Kayaking: After a short hike along a jungle trail, your kayaking guide will get you geared up for one of the best ways to explore the rainforest. You'll quietly kayak with your guide along the edge of a river flanked by majestic rainforest to look for wildlife. We will also make a stop at a sandy beach for a dip in the river before heading back to the lodge.

Jungle Excursion in family

Day 9

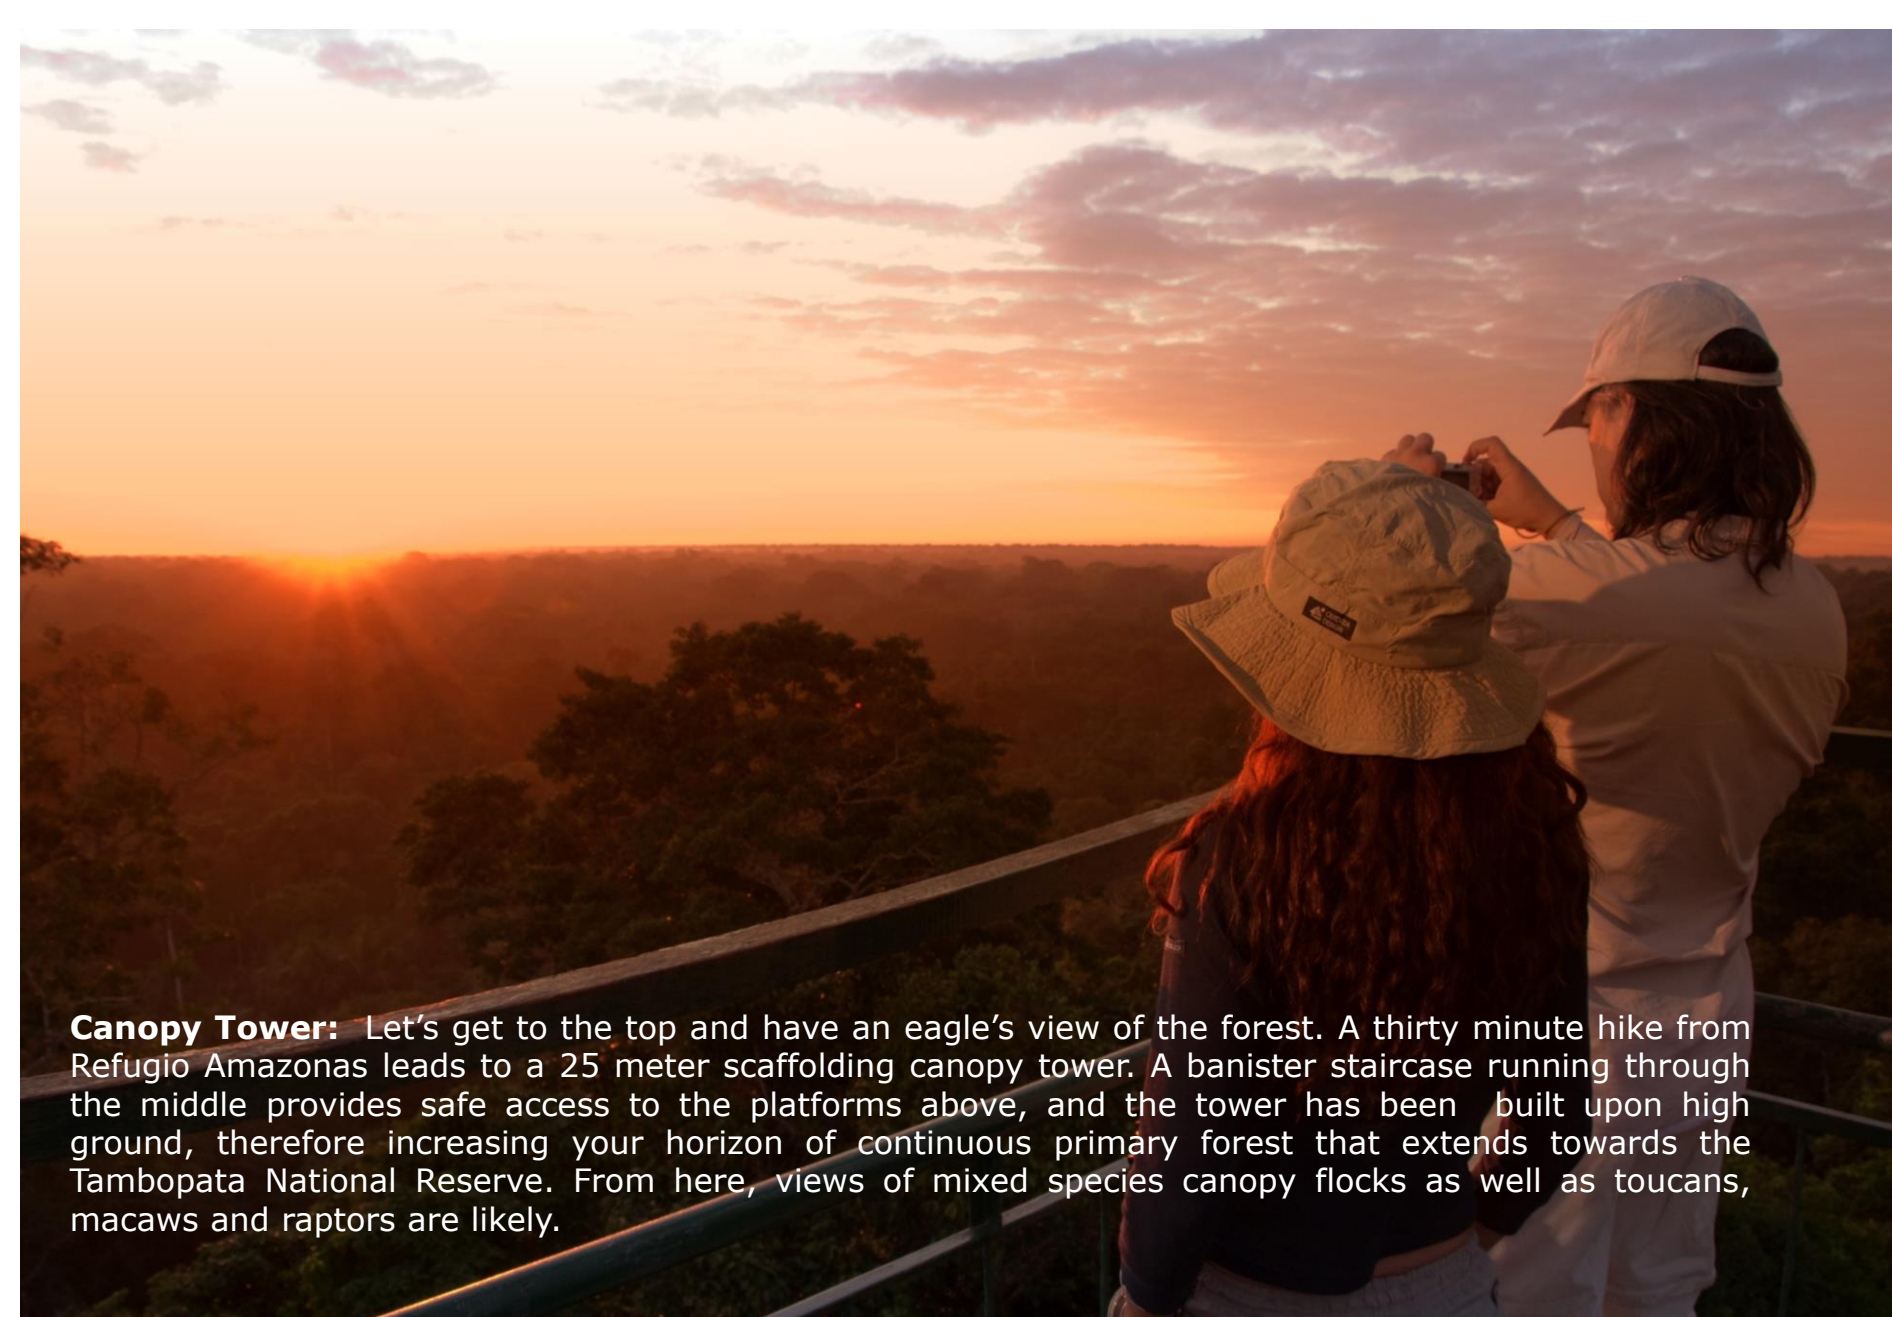

Day 08 – Puerto Maldonado

(B/L/D)

- Jungle excursions (shared English speaking guide)
- Overnight in the lodge

Oxbow Lake Visit: A 45 minute hike through terra firme rainforest brings us to an aguaje palm swamp and the Condonado oxbow lake. Oxbow lakes are amazing habitats, and we'll have the opportunity to experience one while paddling a traditional canoe or catamaran on Condonado Lake. We will look for lakeside wildlife such as big fish, lots of birds, colorful butterflies, and more, while also hoping to see rare Giant Otters. You will also be rewarded with overhead sightings of macaws and beautiful jungle skies.

Canopy Tower: Let's get to the top and have an eagle's view of the forest. A thirty minute hike from Refugio Amazonas leads to a 25 meter scaffolding canopy tower. A banister staircase running through the middle provides safe access to the platforms above, and the tower has been built upon high ground, therefore increasing your horizon of continuous primary forest that extends towards the Tambopata National Reserve. From here, views of mixed species canopy flocks as well as toucans, macaws and raptors are likely.

Canopy Tower

Ethnobotanical Tour: Most medicines come from a medicinal plant in the Amazon, along this trail we will find a diversity of plants and trees that are used by the local people for a variety of purposes. We'll learn about the medicinal (and other) uses of Ayahuasca, Ajo-Sacha, Yuca de Venado, Uña de Gato, Charcot-Sacha, and Para-Para among several others.

Day 11

Day 11 – Lima / ...

- AM: Lima Bohemian Bike tour (private English speaking guide)
- PM: Transfer Hotel / Lima Airport (private English speaking transferman)

(B/-/-)

On this tour, we give to our ride a different spin. We bike around the two main cultural areas of Lima: Miraflores and Barranco. The idea is trying to make the perfect combination between art, history, architecture and nice vibe. We ride among beautiful houses that once were occupied by renowned writers, painters and musicians. We pass by cultural centers, parks, shops, art galleries, ateliers, cozy local cafes and classic bars. We pay special attention to street art work, graffiti, street food, and to the cultural manifestations of two of the most important areas of Lima where locals usually express themselves and have fun more frequently.

Bohemian Biking Tour in Miraflores

Along the tour, we also stop to share anecdotes, love stories and classic urban legends of the local folklore of this cool part of the city.

The tour includes a snack in a traditional old bar or cafe of the area. We also see at a glance, many old houses & colonial mansions of great architecture, as well as some of the best restaurants of the culinary capital of Latin America.
